IIT KANPUR 26 FEBRUARY, 1978 ELECTION SPECIAL

A GOOD CAT DESERVES A GOOD RAT

A LETTER OF INTRODUCTION FOR MAO-TSE-DUNG

I know Chairman Mao. 250 M.Techs and Ph.Ds. passed out under me. I am Professor Emeritus in Jadavpur. I am national professor in 7 international universities. When I went to Chandigarh after I was elected, President of Indian Engineers Assn. for the 2nd time the delegates crowded around me and said, "Stay here. We need you.." But I replied; "No, my boys are hungry. I have to return.

He is probably the greatest man of this century.

Signed
Amitabha Bhattacharya.

Yeh, vote fur Mao. As der immoral Wilfred Shakespir be sayin', t Sum people born grate, sum achievin' de grateness, sum havin' de grateness thrust up' em.

Num .o' yer buggers got de chance of achievin' any of dem three. But you shure have a chance of havin' sumthin' else thrust up yers if you don' give de curriect vote.

Dear Comrades,

The senate is a den of pigs, the director is a paper tiger, the faculty is a bunch of baboons. Sometimes I feel 'like lifting my leg.

Violence, Strife. Class struggle. From the moment you open your eyes. To the moment you close them. This is IIT-K. Comrades, We have to change the fatalism of Confucian scholars.

Comrades, in the past various historians have presented superficial analysis of class structure in IIT Kanpur. For them, the society is divided into PGs and UGs with various hierarchical ramifications of the PGs themselves. They say that Hall V phuds look down upon Hall IV ones and among the Hall V denizens themselves, the III floor phuds look down upon the ground floor ones, the II floor' forming the petit cadre. They place the Thesis-writing phuds in contradistinction with the Anti-Thesis writing phuds. Such an analysis runs into ideological difficulties like "In which class can the Dehaats be placed?" Take it from me; such an analysis is naive, perverted and psychoneurotic. So, reference, shall not be made to it henceforth.

C6mrades, there are only two classes in reality, the fathroo proletariat and maggu bourgeois. History of IITK dramatically reveals that they stood in perpetual class struggle. Bourgeois intellectuals have mistakenly analyzed this class struggle by applying non-equilibrium thermodynamics. But this turns out to be a mere hypostatization of jargon.

~

The dynamics of this class struggle reveals that IITKanpur is the biggest neocolony. The Maggu Bourgeoisie have always indulged in ideological luxuries, like A spitting into B' s titration to alter the end point; they eat with two hands to save time to perpetuate their bourgeois value; some carry tiffin carriers back home to the library.

Non Maggus react to Maggus with violent cries of "Maggu". Why don't the maggus react to non-maggus with violent cries of "Non maggu"? Why? This is because mugging is an instrument of oppression. It is a weapon in the hands of the bourgeoisie.

The increasing acquisitiveness of the maggus is manifested in the form of progressive concentration of library books on their shelves. This is used by them as means of increasing production. This dehumanizing process has its inherent contradiction – the more you mug the more you raise the class average.

The surplus value created by this situation spells the death of magguism because magging becomes a commodity to be exchanged. Finally, the mugguistic anachronism grows to such an extent that it explodes into a revolution. There is also an apparent class called Lumpein proletariat, also called "Lassus". They face the threat of lassuing themselves out of existence. They should not be relied upon in any revolution. Assignment is a weapon in the hands of the maggu bourgeoisie. Down with the assignment.

I

The seeds of revolution are already sown when a fathroo beats his room-mate. Fathroos become increasingly class conscious after consulting each other's grade card. Maggus collect together for greater security.

The biggest threat to the movement is maggus pretending to be fathroos. They should be caught and hung from the nearest lamppost. Then, the revolution slowly spreads into a wing phenomenon' and finally bursts into a total revolution.

Watch out!! There will be no more ' Cultural Festivals,' only' cultural revolutions. No cross country races; only long marches.

A word of caution. A highly degenerate form of Nityanandism is dialectic Takruism. Both are sub-clauses of nihilistic anarchism.

Confucius may have said "when a rape is inevitable lie down and enjoy it". True revolutionary hates confusion. True revolutionary hates rape. True revolutionary only likes 'Mao'. So, vote for Mao.
